Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 505, dated 21st May 1908, submitting report on the petition of Mohomed Ali, mutavalli in the Ahmedi masjid attached to the Gumbaz at Seringapatam, I am directed to observe that it is undesirable to appoint the petitioner's son who is probably young and inexperienced, as Mutavalli on Rs 11/- as prayed for. I am therefore to request that you will be so good as to propose a smaller appointment on pay Rs 8 or so to be given the petitioner's son as Khusankhan or Marazan for which he is reported to be fit, and to embody this proposal in the new revised proposals for filling up the existing vacancies in the Gunnbuz Establishment, which has been called for from you.

2. The submission of the revised proposals should be expedited.
